D. Levitan was at Houghton Wednesday.

Dr. J. G. Turner was down from Houghton Friday.

Miss Lizzie Beecher visited relatives at Calumet this week.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Weiss, of Laird, visited friends in L'Anse Thursday and Friday.

Mrs. George Trudeau has returned home after a visit with Marquette relatives for two weeks.

Mrs. E. E. Tracy and daughter, of Pequaming, visited friends in Houghton part of the week.

The Misses Rose and Helen O'Connor are visiting their sister at Ontonagon this week.

Mrs. C. P. Blankenhorn returned from Houghton Thursday, after a two weeks' visit with her daughter, Mrs. L. B. Armstrong.

Miss Grace Mitchell, teacher of the primary classes in the central school, has gone to lower Michigan to spend her annual summer vacation.

Several carloads of cedar poles were shipped out of the yards here this week. Some fifteen or twenty men are employed loading the poles on flat cars.

Miss Maud Bettles, who has been attending the Northern Normal school at Marquette, left that city a few days ago for Rochester, Mich., to spend the summer.

There will be music in the air at Hancock July 19th, when no less than fifteen brass bands will assist at the reunion of the Sons of St. George.

The Epworth League of the Calumet and Laurium M. E. churches will give an excursion on the steamer Argo to the Huron Islands and Huron Bay on Friday, July 25.

It is understood that Dave Pickett, the colored man who is "the whole show," has applied for a date at the L'Anse Opera House during July. Dave usually hits this village every summer.

J. H. Lewis, of DeKalb, Ill., who visits L'Anse annually with his family on a summer outing, was here Friday and Saturday of last week on a brief fishing trip. It is probable that Mr. Lewis will return again later in the summer.

Capt. Walfred Been, of Skanee, one of the oldest settlers now residing in Baraga county, intends to leave about the middle of July for a trip across the "pond," on an extended visit to his old home in Helsingborg, Sweden. The captain has not set eyes on the land of his birth for over a quarter of a century, having made the last visit in 1864.

An injunction has been drawn up restraining the township board of Greenland, Ontonagon county, from building a town hall in Greenland village. The town board recently decided to erect the building at an expense of $5,000 or $6,000. Mass City and others outside of Greenland village are opposed to this partially from local jealousies and also from the fact that the township owes something like $13,000. Quite a spirited contest is looked for in the courts.

Not all are fully aware of the great benefit the brick yard as it is now conducted, is to the business interests of the town. The Wolf brothers—Frank, Charles and "Dick"—who are in charge of the works this year, have a system of their own in dealing with the men in their employ. They have adopted a plan whereby the men are privileged to quit work every day after 30,000 brick have been moulded and hauled in the drying yards. As a result the men are usually through with their day's labor before 5 o'clock p. m. Thirty men and three boys are steadily employed at the present time, the wages averaging $2 per day. The first kiln of 130,000 brick is now undergoing the process of burning, and another kiln about four times as large is being constructed. The product appears to be the finest yet turned out at the works.

NEW SHINGLE MILL.

Worcester Company, of Munising, To Erect One in L'Anse.

SUCH IS THE REPORT.

Plant Will Be As Large As Any in This Section. 'Tis Said.

The following interesting bit of news is taken from the Marquette Daily Mining Journal of Thursday. At this writing we are unable to vouch for its authenticity or to ascertain anything further regarding the enterprise: "The Worcester company, of Munising, will soon begin the erection of a shingle mill at L'Anse. The plant will be about as large as any shingle mill in this section and it is said that there is sufficient timber in the vicinity to keep it in operation for some years. Cedar will be the principal timber used, though some pine will also be sawed. There are a number of small tracts of cedar near L'Anse owned by farmers and others. The erection of the plant will be a good thing for the timber owners as they will get a very fair price, owing to the high price of shingles at this time."

We have received a fine line of men's suits. Call and see them. D. Levitan, L'Anse.

THE TAX TITLE MAN.

Don't Let Him Get Hold of Your Property.

It is not generally understood—except by the so-called tax title sharks—just how, and the length of time after purchase, a tax title becomes a valid lien or title against the property that may be sold for delinquent taxes. The time for redemption is one year, during which time the owner of property may redeem by paying the tax title holder 100 per cent on or over the amount that was paid for said tax title certificate. After the sale the owner has one year in which to redeem his property. If he does not redeem it in one year, then the purchaser gets a title from the state, which is good against any other title for whatever the deed calls for, provided always the proceedings in the case have been regular. The owner must then make the best terms he can with the tax title holder if he wishes to get back his property.

Those wishing fine photos call at Merrifield's gallery, Baraga.

R. C. Williams was at Portage Lake points Thursday.

A meeting of the township board was held Thursday evening.

Attorney L. N. Legris, of Houghton, was a L'Anse visitor Thursday.

A new residence is being erected on Fime Goodreau's property about a mile southeast of town, to replace the one destroyed by fire Friday of last week. The cause of the fire is attributed to a defective chimney or stovepipe, and not to firecrackers, as previously stated. The family has been tendered substantial aid during the past week, a subscription paper having been circulated among residents of the village. Several citizens also donated the services of teams, labor and material in helping to replace the family home.

C. T. Merrifield, the photographer, at Baraga, is better prepared than ever to turn out the best grades of work. Call and be convinced. All work guaranteed.

We have just received a fine line of gents' neckties—some of the latest styles and shades. D. Levitan, L'Anse.

HOMESTEAD LAW.

Change in Time Limit in Proof May Be Made.

The Marquette land office is advised from Washington that the law recently enacted by congress, pertaining to the proving up of homesteads, has gone into effect. It provides that hereafter final proof of residence and cultivation must be made within seven years from the date of entry before the patent is granted. The limit heretofore was eight years. As formerly, if proof is not made within the specified limit, the homestead involved will be treated as having been voluntarily abandoned and will be opened for new entry.

BLISS RE-NOMINATED.

One Ballot Decides the Contest For gubernatorial Honors.

Gov. Bliss was renominated on the first ballot at the Republican state convention held in Detroit Thursday. The vote was overwhelmingly in his favor, the candidacy of Justus S. Stearns and the others being completely snowed under. The vote for governor was as follows: Bliss, 811; Stearns, 214; Horton, 40; Patton, 22. A motion to make the nomination of Bliss unanimous was defeated, however. Alex. Maitland, of Negaunee, secured second place on the ticket. Following is the Republican state ticket as nominated:

OPERATE MILL FOR SEVERAL YEARS.

Hebard & Son Will Haul Logs From Long Distances to Stock the Pequaming Mill.

Chas. Hebard & Son are preparing to conduct operations at their plant at Pequaming for several years more, and a full stock of logs will be put in next winter. The company has cut nearly all of the timber on its lands and is now buying and towing logs from distances ranging from 40 to 200 miles. The mill was built at Pequaming in 1878, and during the 24 years it has been operated, over 670,000,000 feet of timber have been cut.

Fred Hebard was seen recently in regard to future operations and, according to the Houghton Gazette, gave the following information: "The company will continue to operate its mill for several years. Just how many I am unable to state. We will haul logs for many miles to the mill, and expect next year to bring them as far as 200 miles. The tugs Jay C. Morse, Allenton and Daniel Hebard are kept in continual use in this work."

The company disposes of most of its good lumber to eastern parties and some of the box lumber and the lower grades are shipped to Chicago. The plant is one of the best in the upper peninsula.

It was the desire of the late Charles Hebard to see Pequaming a summer resort. He intended and planned that the entire Pequaming peninsula should be used for that purpose some day. With that in view he refused to allow his men to cut down some of the larger trees and they are standing today.

The Ice Box and Germs.

A responsibility that you may not look upon is the care of your ice box during the next several months. As a breeder of disease germs a badly kept refrigerator can discount a specialist, who cultivates one set of microbes to make war upon another. A thorough cleansing and purifying once in a week is imperative; twice is better. Wash with strong soda and water; rinse with water in which you put a little vinegar. See that the drain pipes are quite sweet, and finish with a soft, dry cloth. Look over the food chamber every day, removing every tainted scrap. Remember that it is more economical to provide quantity sufficient of ice; a generous supply costs less in the end, and meat, butter, milk, fruits are all better for an even temperature.

CRUSHED BY A ROCK.

Tramper Killed in Shaft of Calumet & Hecla Mine Sunday.

James Ronano, a tramper employed in No. 2 shaft of the Calumet & Hecla mine, was instantly killed at an early hour Sunday morning by a piece of rock falling on him and crushing out his life. The funeral of deceased was held Tuesday morning at Calumet.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Parsons arrived in Sault Ste. Marie Tuesday, says the Journal, and are domiciled at the Hanna cottage at Little Rapids. Mrs. Parsons was formerly Miss Mabel Hanna. The happy pair were married last week and will spend the best part of the summer in the vicinity of the Soo. Quite a pleasant romance is to be found in the union of these two. The groom was a struggling artist and fell in love with Miss Hanna. Forgetting her station as a rich girl, he laid siege to her heart as if he were a millionaire and an old acquaintance. She returned his affections with her own and seeing no other way out of it Mark Hanna bestowed his consent to the engagement. Mr. Parsons is now actively connected with Mark Hanna's many business enterprises. Among the many wedding gifts that fell to the lot of the newly married couple was a bit of paper that is perhaps prized above any of the other gifts. It was a check for $50,000 from Mark.

SKANEE ENTERTAINS

A Party of Swedish Lutheran Ministers of National Prominence—Other News Notes.

Midsummer Day—June 24th—was celebrated with great religious services in the Skanee Lutheran church. There were six visiting ministers present, viz.: Rev. Olander, of Calumet; Rev. Linder, of Marquette; Rev. Monell, of Negaunee; Rev. Nystrom, of Norway; Rev. Peterson, of New York, and Rev. Rydman, of Illinois. Rev. Monell spoke in English to a large crowd Monday evening. Rev. Peterson is traveling for the purpose of taking up subscriptions for the Lutheran emigrant home in New York. He received about $45 from the Skanee congregation Tuesday.

Wednesday four of the visiting ministers, together with Rev. Odell, of this place, enjoyed a day's outing and fishing at Huron river. On account of the late rains the fishing was not very good, yet they returned with a good mess of speckled trout. The visitors left for their respective homes Thursday morning.

NOTES.

Lars Gulskoog returned to Skanee Wednesday after a two years' visit in Sweden. Walfred Been contemplates taking a trip across the ocean sometime in July to visit a brother and other relatives in Sweden.

C. H. Anderson is still operating in the lumber woods at Huron river, and owing to the scarcity of men at this time of the year he still has about three weeks' work left, instead of being through about July 1st, as was at first expected.

Jos. LeDuc, of L'Anse, has started a cedar camp on C. T. Rosell's farm. He is getting out poles and ties.

C. T. Rosell, the Portage Entry lightkeeper, is still very sick. His son, who has been attending to the light from the time Mr. Rosell was first taken sick until his successor took hold, arrived home Saturday last. It is believed Mr. Rosell will recover, as he appears to be growing stronger every day.

The Lutheran Young People's society held their semi-annual meeting Saturday last and elected the following officers for the next six months: President, Rev. C. E. Odell; vice-president, C. J. Lundberg; secretary and treasurer, Chas. J. Newman; librarian, Aug. Backstrom; program committee, Olive Anderson, C. J. Lundberg and Chas. J. Newman.
